

Electrical Support Engineer

Job Objective

Provide technical support for Operations team. Providing technical overview of work scopes and estimate manpower, equipment requirements for the purpose of our Proposal to the client. Mentoring V-TES staff, offering your wider knowledge and understanding of our services.

Key Responsibilities

- Provide Electrical Technical Support and advice to V-TES Personnel.
- Actively offering support for Business growth and on occasions attending client meetings.
- Prepare Scope of Works/ Workpacks, Operational Test Procedures and review/amend Field Service Reports.
- Ensures all electrical work activities are carried out safely to a high standard under the permit to work system where applicable.
- Actively participate in company safety management system & competency management System.
- Involved in loading out of offshore equipment pre mobilisation.
- Assist in implementing any changes required to facilitate improvements to team efficiency.
- Provide in-house training and mentoring V-TES Technicians.
- Assist in maintaining tooling and equipment offshore and onshore.
- Promote excellent customer relations at the worksite.
- Assist in coordinating and participate in the clean-up, repair, and preparation of equipment for the next job.
- Offshore, onshore work for clients and overseas work will be required.
- Strong experience and technical ability with high voltage systems, power generation, switchgear and controls.

Knowledge and competence

Required Knowledge	Required Competence
Must possess good skills within the service line and have a general understanding of other service functions.	Minimum 5 years competence in the electrical industry.
Must be knowledgeable in HSE standards, guidelines for V-TES personnel.	Offshore certification.
Offshore Experience	Good general customer awareness.
HNC Electrical Engineering	Competent with Microsoft Office.
HV/LV Switchgear	Key Communication skills.
CompEx
Desirable
CAD	